

Nehalem Valley Historical Society Presents

"Black in Oregon 1840-1870"

Join us for our Speaker Series Presentation every Second Saturday in February, March, April and May 2020.

Time: 3:00 PM

Location: The Historic Pine Grove Community House
225 Laneda Avenue, Manzanita, Oregon

Admission $5 per person at the door

Pine Grove Community House | February 8, 2020

Speaker's Series

"Black in Oregon 1840-1870"

Presented by Layne Sawyer, Reference Manager for the Oregon State Archives

Join us February 8th at 3pm and learn about the award winning exhibit produced by the Oregon State Archives staff, interns and volunteers - illuminating the courage and resilience of black pioneers and their families who immigrated to Oregon between 1840 and 1870 despite the many barriers they faced.

Admission: $5 at the door

Feb 8, 2020

The Nehalem Valley Historical Society (NVHS) is headquartered in the lower level of the historic Pine Grove Community House and maintains archives and exhibits featuring the history of the lower Nehalem Valley. This lecture series is sponsored by NVHS members and volunteers. For more information email us at: info@nehalemvalleyhistory.org.

Find out more at nehalemvalleyhistory.org

Design by RecreateNow Marketing, Rockaway Beach | recreatenow.com